Come and Sing

Saturday, March 11th 2023

Duruflé's Requiem was commissioned in 1941 and was completed in 1947. The work was written in memory of the composer's father. The Requiem is Duruflé's most famous piece.

Paul Spicer began his musical training as a chorister at New College, Oxford. He studied with Herbert Howells and Richard Popplewell (organ) at the Royal College of Music in London. Paul is best known as a choral conductor, partly through the many CDs he made with the Finzi Singers. He conducted Bach Choirs in Chester and Leicester before moving to conduct the Birmingham Bach Choir in 1992. He taught at the Royal College of Music between 1995 and 2008, and now teaches choral conducting and directs the acclaimed chamber choir at the Royal Birmingham Conservatoire. He also teaches at Oxford and Durham Universities.
